Reply from the Collector Bellary Rc.9120-52 dated 22-7-52

Petition dated 12-6-52 from ~~Collector of Bellary~~ Sri A. Rajagopal Naidu

Sri A. Rajagopal Naidu, Accountant Try.Dy.Collector's Office Bellary has been ordered to retire from service on the F.N. of 1-7-52. He has put in a petition for re-employment as Accountant in the Accounts Branch of the Collector's Office, Bellary. The Try.Dy.Collector, Bellary recommends that he may be re-appointed as an Accountant in his office.

2. In their order No.Rt.No.354 Finance dated 9--4-52 communicated in B.P.Rt. 2690 dated 18-4-52 the Government were pleased to sanction the re-employment of Sri C. Bhimasena Rao retired Upper Division Clerk Taluk Office Bellary for a period of one year in the Accounts Branch; but he has not reported for duty so far though he was reappointed on 3-5-52. There is no likelihood of his joining because he is said to be employed in a private bank. There is still great need for experienced persons for work in the accounts branch of my office. I therefore recommend the re-employment of the petitioner, Sri A. Rajagopal Naidu for a period of one year from the date of employment in the Accounts Branch of the Collector's Office Bellary. I request that the Government may be pleased to issue early orders in the matter.

Copy of Board's Ref:Z:3858-52-1 dated 1-7-52;

Letter from the Collector Bellary Rc.9120-52 A5 dated 22-6-52

The Collector is requested to send the Personal File and the Service Register together with the petition of Sri A. Rajagopal Naidu dated 22-6-52

The Collector should specifically report whether clerks with accounts experience have not become available from the staff released due to de-rationing of foodgrains.

Copy of Rc.9120-52-A5 dated 22-7-52 from the Collector of Bellary.

This Office Rc.9120-52 A5 dated 22-6-52.
Board's Ref:Z:3858-52-1 dated 1-7-52.

With reference to the Board's reference No.2 cited above I enclose the Personal file and the petition of Sri A. Rajagopala Naidu Ex-Accountant Treasury Deputy Collector's Office Bellary. The Service Register of the individual has been sent to the Accountant General Madras along with the pension papers and hence it is not available.

The staff retrenched due to derationing consisted only of non-M.S.C. temporary clerks who have no knowledge of accounts branch work. Hence there is necessity for the reemployment of some retired clerks who have accounts knowledge. I recommend the reemployment of Sri A. Rajagopala Naidu as Accountant Treasury Deputy Collector's Office Bellary for a period of one year from the date of employment.

Reference:

Submitted to the Government.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Collector, the Board supports his recommendation that Sri A. Rajagopala Naidu retired Accountant, Huzur Treasury Bellary district may be reemployed in the same capacity for a period of one year from the date of appointment.
